My dear Jeff.

Your Paper on Ordeal at Gallaway is before me. I have read it over and over. So far as I know it is factual and certainly it is friendly

What you say relative to my own smudge pot is Candid. Never shall I forget that meeting with your Affirm Board. I did not feel that night that they were unchristian but were in a conflict of mind

And heart between some long cherished convictions and the new demands relative to race in the Church. You were Christian and patient and I admired you

Having said all this in high appreciation of all you are I would show this paper to my family and then
"forgetting the past press on etc"

I am glad to have you as a dear friend

Sincerely
Arthur J. Moore
